KINDERGARTEN ENTERING FIRST GRADE

A Couple of Boys Have the Best Week Ever - Marla Frazee When James and Eamon go to a week of Nature Camp and stay at Eamon's grandparents' house, it turns out that their free time spent staying inside, eating waffles, and playing video games is way more interesting than nature. Caldecott Honor Book

Not a Used Dog, At All – Carol Erickson Matt only wants a fluffy pet store puppy, not a 'used' dog from the shelter. When he reluctantly meets a homeless dog, he learns some truths about shelter dogs, store bought puppies, and the difference a kid can make in the world. Matt finds out that sometimes the best outcome is the one you didn't expect.

Dinosaur Babies - Lucille Recht Penner Was it dangerous to be a baby dinosaur? Yes! Big dinosaurs might step on you. Or eat you! Who took care of baby dinosaurs?

Froggy Goes to Camp - Jonathan London Froggy packs a lot into one week: hikes and archery lessons, K.P. and food fights, scary stories and funny songs around the campfire. But only Froggy could also manage to lose his trunks during swim class and overturn his kayak with the camp director in it. Lovable, bumbling Froggy will keep his many fans laughing with his latest antics.

Henry Hikes to Fitchburg - D. B. Johnson While his friend works hard to earn the train fare to Fitchburg, a bear, modeled on a young Henry Thoreau, walks the thirty miles through woods and fields, enjoying nature and the time to think great thoughts.

Martin's Big Words: The Life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. - Doreen Rappaport This picture book biography of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. brings his life and the profound nature of his message to young children through his own words. Martin Luther King, Jr., was one of the most influential and gifted speakers of all time. Caldecott Honor Book

Max Found Two Sticks - Brian Pinkney On a day when Max doesn't feel like talking to anyone, a strong breeze shakes two heavy twigs to the ground in front of his brownstone home. Picking them up, the young African-American boy begins to beat out a rhythm that imitates the sound of pigeons startled into flight.

Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus - Mo Willems On the title page the bus driver addresses the reader directly. He says that he has to be gone for a while and asks if the reader can watch things, but not to let the pigeon drive the bus. Caldecott Honor Book

Ella Sarah Gets Dressed - Margaret Chodos-Irvine Ella Sarah may be little, but she has a BIG sense of style--and it isn't at all like that of her mother, father, and older sister.

What Do You Do with a Tail Like This? - Robin Page and Steve Jenkins Children will learn that lizards can completely break off their tail as a defense and that it will grow back. And, they'll find out that crickets' ears are on their knees. Most fish have two eyes, but some have four, the better to see above and below the water at the same time.

The Mysterious Benedict Society - Trenton Lee Stewart Four children are secretly spies as students in the Learning Institute for the Enlightened. They have to avoid being brainwashed by Mr. Curtain, one of the owners of the school. This is a mystery you will be eager to see unfold.

FIFTH GRADE ENTERING SIXTH GRADE

Bat 6 - Virginia Euwer Wolff Two sixth-grade girls are on a collision course as their softball teams get ready for the fiftieth anniversary game in 1949 between two neighboring Oregon towns.

Belle Prater's Boy - Ruth White There's a mystery at the heart of this lyrical novel for young adults: what really happened to Belle Prater, the aunt of 12-year-old Gypsy Arbutus Leemaster? When Gypsy's cousin, Belle's son Woodrow, comes to live in tiny Coal Station, Virginia, he sets off a chain of events that precipitates a solution to this enigma, as well as the mystery of Gypsy's own father's death seven years earlier. Newbery Honor Book

Igraine the Brave - Cornelia Funke Igraine thought it boring that her parents are the greatest magicians between Whispering Woods and Giant's Hills. Her brother, Albert, wants to be a magician, but Igraine would rather win one of the King's tournaments and become a famous knight.

The Ear, the Eye, and the Arm - Nancy Farmer Even readers who don't like sf will be drawn to a hero who has a sense of humor about his serious mission. In Zimbabwe in the year 2194, the military ruler's 13-year-old son and his younger brother and sister leave their technologically over controlled home and find themselves on a series of perilous adventures. Newbery Honor Book

Elijah Of Buxton - Christopher Paul Curtis Eleven-year-old Elijah lives in Buxton, Canada, a settlement of runaway slaves near the American border. He's the first child in town to be born free, and he ought to be famous just for that. Unfortunately, all that most people see is a "fragile" boy who's scared of snakes and talks too much. Newbery Honor Book

Indian Chiefs - Russell Freeman The story of six Native American chiefs who led their people in a historic moment of crisis as the pioneers migrated west.

Listen! - Stephanie S. Tolan Charley's mother died just a short time ago, and, still raw with grief, the 12-year-old is faced with a miserable summer recuperating from a car accident that has left her with a slowly healing leg. Her best friend is spending the summer at tennis camp, and her father has buried himself in work because of his own pain. Christopher Award Book
